VERANDA FURNITURE

THE TIME FOR IT HAS ARRIVED.

To us it seems but a few weeks ago that we were clearing stocks of all Piazza and Reed Furniture preparatory for the winter season. But it was months ago—further proof that time does fly. Now we tell you of the splendid new things in easy and restful pieces of Veranda Furniture for those days when mother nature tempts one to imbibe the outdoor air.

The Veranda is an index to the interior of the house. You can always tell a well-furnished house by the exterior. We are showing some decided novelties in the way of Three-Piece Suits for the Veranda. They can be seen in our windows today, together with Porch Shades, Swings, Rugs, odd Rockers, Chairs, etc., all the very latest creations for the outside of the house.

Edward Brown of Ashland, N. H., was arrested last night by Officer Hamel on intoxication. In city court this morning Brown pleaded guilty and was sentenced to the county jail for ten days in default of payment of his fine. He said he had been working here as section hand on the M. & W. road.

Two lectures on "Birds" were given at the opera house, one in the afternoon and the other in the evening, by "Mr. Avis" yesterday. There were about 450 school children in the audience in the afternoon and a fair sized attendance in the evening. The speaker described birds and their habits and mimicked some of their calls, using a violin in his work as an auxiliary to his voice.

It costs you no more to trade where you get red stamps than it does elsewhere. Then why not get your groceries at Dix & Coleman's? You must see F. H. Martin, the Williamstown meat man who is second to none in his line; your milk and cream at Carl C. Rollins of the Suburban Dairy farm, and fish and vegetables, etc., of your old friend Joseph Rodney. All stamps redeemed at Eastern Estate Tea Store, telephone, 51-1.

It has been about a month since the Eastern Estate Tea Co. opened their store in the Averill block, opposite city park. We like the place and we have come to stay. The Eastern Estate Tea Co. has never closed a store so we are permanently located at Barre. Our teas and coffees have made many friends since we have been here. They can't be beat at the price and the stamps given are entirely extra. The red stamp plan is the best premium plan that we know of. Come to the store Monday and get $1.00 worth of stamps free to start a book and $1.00 worth extra if you make a purchase; $2.00 worth with a pound of baking powder; $3.00 worth with a pound of tea, and $3.00 worth with a pound of coffee.

Not the Same as Yesterday.

There is always something new with us and this time it is something that you can use to good advantage.

NEW SILKS

The new addition to our stock is that new make of Silk—the Banzai Silk. This we have in navy, black and resada grounds, with invisible and white figures, having all the style and durability of Foulard Silks and we are stating the price at 50c.

Succine Silks are in plain colors. The reason that we are advertising these Silks so often is that they are our very best values and we expect by keeping the price down to 45c to be able to get lots of new trade on them.

Glasco Linen Finish.

We have just received a new cloth that is away ahead of Indian Head Cotton for finish and fineness and has that round thread so much sought after. The price is but 15c. One yard wide.

The Good Clothes Store!

As usual, Sir, you'll find the Suit you'll fancy here. We're noted for having the best. When we say "best" we mean the choicest styles, the newest fabrics, the correct cut and the best tailoring. While many stores are thinking of the new ideas in Spring Suits and wondering whether they'll take we're selling them. The man who invests anything in appearance will find at this "Good Clothes Store" exactly what he's looking for. When we name such modest prices as $10.00, $12.00, $15.00 or $25.00 for one of our choice Spring Suits, surely our prices will not keep you away.
